

Vintage Stock Holds Annual Managers' Meeting

Vintage Stock recently held its annual Manager's Meeting at the Downstream Casino on January 14 and 15. The theme of the meeting was Cooperation +Customer Service = Success. During the meeting the mission and vision statements for Vintage Stock were reinforced, along with several strategic initiatives that will assist in Vintage Stock continuing to position itself as a profitable business in the future. This meeting served to also continue reinforcing the need for teamwork and relationship building throughout the company. All present came away with a clear understanding of future goals and the necessary steps required in the present to attain them. Present for these meetings were managers from all 21 Vintage Stock stores and 3 representatives from the Movie Trading Company brand, which includes a total of 12 stores.
